Description

Izzy's favorite part of Rosh Hashanah is Tashlich, a joyous ceremony in which people apologize for the mistakes they made in the previous year and thus clean the slate as the new year begins. But there is one mistake on Izzy's "I'm sorry" list that he's finding especially hard to say out loud. Humor, touching moments between family and friends, and lots of information about the Jewish New Year are all combined in this lovely picture book for holiday sharing.

Winner of the Sydney Taylor Gold Medal for best Jewish picture book of the year!

Sharron: I just found this book this year and it is a much more direct teaching tool about Tashlich than the book I love to use. It is straight-forward, which is appropriate for my first graders.

Alyson (Kid Lit Frenzy): What a sweet story of Rosh Hashanah. I liked the way the author helped explain the whole concept of Tashlich and "I'm sorry". Done in a way small children can understand.
