Description

After a devastating flood orphaned Noelle Brown, she thought her charming benefactor, Andrew Paige, could be the man of her dreams. So why did his steely-eyed older stepbrother, Jared Dunn, make her heart race and her breath catch in her throat? Desperado turned lawman, Jared had come home to Fort Worth, Texas, ready to leave his dangerous past behind. The green-eyed, feisty young woman his stepbrother had taken in wasn't the gold digger Jared had expected. Far from it: the unconventional, innocent beauty needed his guidance to learn the ways of high society, a task he found surprisingly enjoyable -- until she tempted and tormented him with a maddening passion. Rivalry would pit brother against brother, and scandal would rock their lives. Noelle would have to convince a man unwilling to believe in love that only he could still the anguish in her heart -- and fulfill the promise of their destiny.

Insightful reviews

Tonya Warner: Noelle Brown was away from home, caring for her sick uncle, when Galveston was destroyed by a hurricane. Her entire family had been killed, leaving her with the tragic memories of identifying them, and still living in the city, fearing the next storm. When a distant cousin appears and invites her to leave and live with him and his grandmother, she works hard to fit in.

Andrew might be a dashing man, but he lacks true character. He is more than willing to have Noelle in his home, but she tends to be an embarrassment to him with her unsocial graces. But, she is pretty enough, he believes he can convince her to become his mistress.

Andrew's stepbrother, Jared Dunn is more than just cityfied lawyer he presents. Having a long history involving gunfights, the Rangers, and military service, Jared provides for his grandmother and frivolous stepbrother, Andrew. Finding the feisty newcomer, Noelle in his home, sets in motion the fulfillment of his dreams, even before he knows he has them.

A very enjoyable story. A little thrown off by the time frame with the going back and forth between gunfights and horseback riding to the typewriter and telephone. It all seemed just a little weird.

Dewi Read: Love this story lines, the other awesome DP books I ever read Linda: Enjoyable read. Loved the characters and the story.

Dee: this can be most likely one among my favourite DP books simply because its an older classic, simply because she obtained into her extra formulatic writing style!

Cassandra: Written Beautifully. Plus it is a Diana Palmer, want I say more!

Pupottina: Un romanzo storico semplice, ma intensamente romantico. Diana Palmer con il colore del fuoco ha saputo entrare, ancora una volta, nel cuore delle lettrici con una storia romanticissima fra los angeles dolce e ingenua Noelle Brown e due fratellastri, completamente diversi. Uno, il fratello maggiore, è un avvocato misterioso di nome Jared Dunn. L'altro, Andrew, è un affascinante giovane alla moda, perfettamente inserito nell'ambiente sociale. La vicenda si svolge del 1902 e in step with una ragazza los angeles scoperta dell'amore è qualcosa che si vive diversamente. Le passioni risultano più eccessive e profonde e il corteggiamento e il meccanismo dell'attrazione scorrono con tempi molto più lenti. Vivere l'amore nel 1902, o scoprire dove esso si nasconde, è un percorso denso di insidie. according to los angeles giovane Noelle non è facile: si rivela ardua l. a. scelta fra uno dei due fratelli, poiché l. a. mente le consiglia uno dei fratelli, ma l'attrazione l. a. porta verso l'altro. L'amore non soltanto si sceglie, ma si conquista e Diana Palmer riesce a descrivere l. a. nascita di questo potente sentimento nel cuore della tenera Noelle. È un romanzo dove non mancano los angeles passione, il senso della giustizia e soprattutto tanto romanticismo. È scorrevole, pieno di tenerezza e di scene appassionate. Mi sono immersa nella lettura e ho scoperto con disappunto soltanto che il romanzo è finito troppo presto. Una storia romantica che merita di a long way parte della mia collezione di romance.
