Description

When both your past and future spell fear.

Award-winning author Stuart Woods has crafted a masterful novel no reader will soon forget. For years, Liz Barwick has been battered by her brutal husband, a famous pro football player. This time it takes an emergency room to keep her from death. Now, the beautiful and talented photographer retreats to an island paradise off Georgia's coast to find solitude--and herself.

As she becomes increasingly involved with the strange and handsome twin scions of the powerful Drummond family, she feels her traumatic memories begin to fade. But when a killer launches a series of gruesome murders, Liz discovers that there is no place to hide--not even in her lover's arms.

Insightful reviews

Sharon: When Liz Barwick manages to escape her violent husband, she is finally breathing easy on Cumberland. However, people from her past are dying in rather grisly ways ... even as she tries to reclaim her life with handsome Keir, one of the Drummond twins, whose father owns Cumberland.

The book is more than 20 years old, so some of the issues may feel a little dated. The suspense, however, is right on as we watch Baker Ramsay, Liz' ex, do everything he can to get revenge on her for leaving. The situation is believable (the most dangerous time for a domestic violence survivor is when she gets away), and the characters are well-drawn.

Of course, Keir (and the rest of his family) has his secrets, which are revealed throughout the course of the text.

Those who like suspense thrillers should give this one a look.

Rebecca: This was a quick read that accompanied me to a pool one day on vacation and it was done by sundown. It was a bit predictable but I enjoyed it anyway. Perfect light reading!

Pamela Rabon: I'm not used to SW writing a book that's not part of a series. This was a hang on to your hat story. The twin thing blew my mind. That ex of hers was a total nut job and he almost got away with all those murders.

Becky: the best books i have learn in a protracted time! could not positioned it down!

Meakin: a very terrific learn with sufficient tricks of fact to make it believable. Stuart Woods has a winner during this one. Lindsey's past evaluate stated she rather bought to grasp the characters during this book. She hit it useless on. that is so true.
